NOT SHACKLED BY THE EXPECTATIONS

The esteemed guru, Wanda, a refugee from the enigmatic Sphere Eight of the Multiverse, imparted wisdom to us, her eager apprentices, with a profound declaration:

“You are not shackled by the expectations of others or the constraints of your surroundings; instead, you hold the reins of your own odyssey. Embrace your identity, even if it means transforming into a vibrant transgender shark of color. However, be mindful of your surroundings and the choices you make—venturing into public libraries or elementary schools to share age-inappropriate literature with young children, or staging a prayer visual outside a local sushi bar in London while embodying that colorful shark persona, could be perceived as crossing a line into what some might label a 'hate' thought crime.”

It might seem astonishing, yet it is indeed a reality: you hold the remarkable ability to craft your own future and steer your life as a self-sufficient entity.

This empowerment comes when you embrace the notion that your social credit score could plummet to a strikingly low figure if you dare to pursue your passions and step boldly into the illuminating embrace of truth.
